FARM FOR SALE.
The Best Bargain Offered

S. N. ELLIOTT offers for sale this Farm of 920 Acres, at Elliott's Station, on the Mississippi Central Railroad, eight miles south of Grenada. 300 more acres can be added if desired.
The land lies on both sides of the railroad, up to Elliott's Station, and affords eligible site for Mercantile and Manufacturing establishments. It has an abundance of fine timber, needed by the railroad; more than enough to pay the price of the whole tract. It is all level, and susceptible of divisions to suit any purposes. Has 550 acres cleared and under good fence. Has a comfortable family residence with good out-houses, barns and stables—large, and the best gin, screw and cotton press—all new, in the same county. The improvements cost within the last three years $4000. Mr. Elliott desires to sell before the first of January next, and as a strong inducement he offers his land at ten dollars per acre, in United States Currency; for which he refused thirty dollars per acre in 1861. Time will be given, if desired, upon half the price upon fair terms. Sale must be made soon or not at all. Title of the highest grade. Refer to

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Nearly all the members of the National Republican Convention are to attend the meeting on Wednesday, at which the time and place for holding the National Convention are to be settled. The choice seems to be between Chicago and Cincinnati, with the chances in favor of the former. Chicago offers to furnish a wigwam, and give $15,000 for campaign purposes. Representative Egleston, of Ohio, offers to raise $20,000 in Cincinnati if the Convention is held there. He has received letters which encourage the belief that the sum can be made up by Cincinnati merchants. If so, Chicago is prepared to offer $25,000 or $30,000.

It is given out by reliable men that a committee will be appointed in the House to investigate charges against Mr. Ashley for attempting to suborn witnesses against President Johnson, in the late impeachment investigation.

The summary disposition of the impeachment question in the House has left a large number of undelivered speeches on that subject in the hands of members. At least forty members had committed their views to manuscript, and were denied a chance to explode.

The Finance Committee have as yet held no meeting on the House bill to repeal the cotton tax. Three members of the committee are opposed to it. Still it is believed that it will become a law.

Lieut. Gen. Sherman will remain here about a month. He had interviews Friday with Gen. Grant and the President. On Wednesday he will meet the Indian Peace Commissioners. There is no truth in the rumor that he is to be assigned to any new command.

Saturday the House by the decisive vote of 128 to 32, passed the bill reported by Mr. Schenck, from the Ways and Means Committee, that, from and after the passing of the act, the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to make any further reduction of the currency, by retiring or canceling United States notes, shall be, and is hereby suspended.

The treaty for the purchase of St. Thomas and St. Joseph Islands may probably not be taken up for consideration in the Senate until next week. Meantime, recommendations for the purchase from the representatives of the commercial interests are coming in, and Senators indicate a purpose to delay the action in the Senate until further indications of approval come from influential quarters.

Information received here yesterday from the Government of Spain discloses the Spanish anxiety about the purposes of the United States Government, a report having reached the Spanish authorities to the effect that it is the intention of the Administration to get possession of Porto Rico and four or five islands, and even Cuba.

It will be remembered that on the occasion of the parade and review of the First division of the National Guards on the 15th of October last, some soldiers in the division expressed political feelings toward Gov. Swann, by groaning for him and cheering for Congress. The Governor caused a court of inquiry to be instituted, and yesterday approved and promulgated its findings as follows: "For gross violation of military discipline and unsoldierlike conduct, the Sixth and Eighth regiments, Second brigade, First division Maryland National Guards are hereby publicly reprimanded. The officers of companies D, E, and G, Eighth regiment Maryland National Guards are hereby dishonorably dismissed the service, and the enlisted men of said companies are hereby dishonorably discharged the service. The indignity offered by the above regiments was publicly aimed at the highest officer of the State, and merited from every true soldier and good citizen the highest condemnation."

A LOOK AT MAXIMILIAN'S BODY—ITS SURRENDER TO ADMIRAL TEGETHOFF.

[From the New York Tribune's correspondent.]
MEXICO, November 10, 1867.

The body of the Emperor Maximilian will be sent in a few days, under a strong escort, to Vera Cruz, their to be formally delivered to Admiral Tegethoff. On the 8th inst., that officer, accompanied by eight or ten official or personal friends, including Dr. Basch, the Emperor's physician, who was permitted by the government to make a formal examination of the condition of the body before its departure. Persons who were present give the following account of it:

The body is neatly dressed in black, all the clothes, even the gloves, being of the Emperor's own wardrobe, except the patent leather shoes. It is encased next the skin in several bandages, one of them being of gutta percha, as a preservative against the effects of damp. The brain, heart and intestines have been carefully embalmed and placed in their proper places inside the body. The head alone is exposed to view. The face appears very emaciated, an effect, doubtless, produced partly by the Emperor's long sickness prior to his execution, and partly by the process of embalmment. The end of the nose, which has begun to decay, has been so skillfully replaced with wax that it appears perfectly natural. The artificial eyes, which are open, are of a somewhat darker shade than the Emperor's. The peculiar beard and long mustaches are well preserved, except that along the edges of the upper lip the hair was shorter than he was accustomed to wear it, and looks rubbed and worn. The hair on the back of the head is almost wholly wanting, the result of the thefts of it which are known to have taken place at Queretaro. The lower lip is thin and apparently decayed, or shrunken in the process of embalmment. The Emperor had the full projecting lower lip, the "pocket mouth" which the Hapsburgs inherit, with the county of Tyrol, from their ancestress, Meg Pocket-mouth, who brought that territory into their family. The retreating chin and projecting upper front teeth are very natural. One of the latter, on the left side of the face, is broken, but is believed to have been so in the Emperor's lifetime. The rest are in good preservation. The hair of the head being drawn back, contrary to the Emperor's custom, the forehead appears more bald than it did in his lifetime. The skull is perfect, except the portion taken out to extract the brain in embalming. This fragment has been retained—that is, stolen by one of the Mexican physicians who superintended the embalming at Queretaro—so the Emperor's physician declared at the recent examination—and its place has been supplied with wood. The ears being covered by the padding placed to secure the body in its coffin, are not visible.

Opinions in the Admiral's party were very varied as to the preservation of the likeness. Some recognized it at once, while others thought that, but for their previously knowing that they were to see the Emperor's remains, they would have been at first unable to distinguish them, except those of a tall, spare man, of Maximilian's hight and general proportions. The body lay on its back, the face wholly without expression, and turned upward, the arms, hands and feet lying in a straight, natural position, and the varnish applied to the face and to the hair, gave both a much darker tint than the natural one, especially to the face. The disturbing influence of that position of the body, and the change of complexion gradually disappearing from their minds, most of the party finally recognized the preservation of the likeness, as far, perhaps, as was practicable in embalming. The body has only a slight aromatic odor, and is very carefully secured from motion or damage from other causes, in a massive coffin or rather sarcophagus. This is made internally of cedro or ligat mahogany, and externally of granadillo, the most precious of Mexican timber, not unlike, though more beautiful than the finest mahogany used in veneering; the granadillo is sometimes seen in Europe and the United States in ornaments to flutes and other musical instruments. The feet of the sarcophagus are also of granadillo, and elaborately and tastefully carved. Its entire exterior is beautifully polished, and the whole is in simple and excellent taste. The lid is removable; at the end toward the Emperor's head it is made to fit securely into the body of the sarcophagus, and at the other it is secured by a strong lock, neatly fitted into the lower end of the sarcophagus, the keyhole being almost entirely concealed by the projecting cornice. The sarcophagus lay in the center of the chapel of the hospital of San Addres, on a slightly elevated platform, covered with black cloth; the head was in the direction toward the high altar. Except in the absence of lighted tapers and the ceremonial which the Roman Church observes to its dead, the Emperor's remains seemed to be treated with all possible respect. Gen. Vasquez and one of the Mexican physicians intrusted with the re-embalming here attended, on the part of the Government, the examination made on the 8th inst. Admiral Tegethoff was much and visibly affected at the sight of the remains of his former commander in the Austrian army. He and his party were treated by Gen. Vasquez, throughout the examination, which lasted nearly an hour, with the utmost courtesy and consideration. For conveyance to the coast, the sarcophagus containing the Emperor's remains will be placed in a strong box, lined and covered with zinc. There another inspection will precede the formal delivery. The body was surrendered by this Government on a request made in a letter addressed to it as the Government of Mexico, by Mr. de Beust, as Minister of the Imperial house, not as Minister of Foreign Affairs of Austria.

SOCIAL EQUALITY.

The Montgomery Mail gives a sketch of the debate in the Alabama Constitutional Convention on the proposition to incorporate in the Bill of Rights a provision that common carriers shall make no distinction on account of color. The Mail says that it gives the debate as taken by its reporter, and guarantees its accuracy. The following portion of it will be read with curiosity:

Mr. McLeod (black negro) said "he hoped the Convention would give this matter their best consideration. Suppose one of the gentlemen wanted a colored man in the same car with him, the conductor would not allow it. He thought this ought to be changed."

Mr. Jim Green (black negro) said he "had done a great deal of traveling, and he felt interested in this question. It was a common thing for colored people being put into a smoking car with drunkards and low white men. He thought they ought to be allowed to go among decent white people."

Maj. Sample said "he thought the Convention had better meet this question fairly. He asked was it unreasonable, considering the history of this country, and the attitude in which the two races stood to each other, that the steamboat captain should have the power to say to the colored people—'you shall not sit at the same table with white men and mix up with them as you please?' It had been recently decided in some of the States that this was a justifiable exercise of authority. After having inserted in the Constitution various provisions which were intended to secure to all races civil rights, he thought the question of what said rights were ought to be left to the courts."

Mr. Gregory (mulatto negro) asked "how could the delegates go home to their constituents, nineteen-twentieths of whom were colored men, after having voted against their enjoying the same rights in all respects as white people? Did the gentleman from Montgomery (Sample) feel polluted by sitting alongside of Finley, his colored colleague? And if not, why should he feel polluted by sitting by his side in a car? For himself, he thought Napoleon on his throne was not a better man than he (Gregory) was."

Mr. Carroway (mulatto negro) said "at present the colored man could not send his wife from one part of the State to another, because she would be placed in a smoking car, and exposed to the insults of low and obscene white men! He did not see how any friend of the colored man could vote against breaking down this monopoly."

Mr. Griffin ("incarnate fiend") said "he was sorry this question had come up, but he should meet the issue fairly and vote for the proposed amendment."

Mr. Rapier (mulatto negro), said the manner in which colored gentlemen and colored ladies were treated was past his comprehension, He wanted the gentleman from Montgomery to understand that he did not consider himself honored by sitting in a car beside him, because he was a white man simply, but only because of his intelligence. He (Rapier) had dined with lords in his life time. Out of respect for their constituents the delegates ought to vote for the amendment.

Mr. Safford (white) said he regretted that such a firebrand had been thrown unnecessarily in their midst. But he hoped they would meet the issue like men who knew what was right and dared to do it. While they were protecting the rights of one section of the people of Alabama, they ought not to neglect the rights of another. Did not the Convention know what had recently been the issue in the Northern States, and what the decision had been? As a friend of the colored man, as a friend of philanthropy, he protested against a war of races. They knew their opponents sought to force that issue upon them, and he hoped they would not be so unwise as to allow them to do so. He should vote against the proposition.

Mr. Morgan said, "the question had been already legally decided in the North. A colored man ought to be content with getting the same value for his money as a white man, and ought not to seek to force himself into the same car with white people."

Mr. Bingham fulminated in a few remarks of an extremely rambling and irrelevant character. He expressed his surprise "that the amendment had not been passed without discussion."

Mr. Dustan moved to postpone the question until Monday, as he saw that most of the delegates had left their seats. The motion was agreed to and the question postponed.

A Peep into Brigham Young's Seraglio.

The Salt Lake City correspondent of the Buffalo Express says:

But let us seek a field of interest. Here on our right hand are the private grounds of him who ruleth in Zion, Brigham Young. Twenty acres he owns in the heart of the city, where are pleasant walks and floral beauties, surrounded by a wall of stone. Within this inclosure are three princely mansions, where live his thirty wives and numberless progeny. Each of these houses carries a name that disorder and confusion may not arise in the camp of Israel. They are the Bee Hive House, Lion House and White House on the Hill. This mighty wall is designed to shut out the world, to exclude inquisitive sight, but we shall venture to describe the scene within. It is the hour of sunset, gilding the mountains with rapturous light. We approach the massive iron gates, and, unlike Moore's disconsolate Peri, we are permitted to enter the domestic paradise. Strolling leisurely along the grassy walks our attention is attracted to the singular movements of an elderly woman, her hair streaked with silvery threads, yet with a step firm and elastic. This evening's air is inviting, and she seems to enjoy its freshness. In her hand is an open book (can it be "Griffith Gaunt; or, Jealousy?") which closes with a nervous twitch of the hands, as her fading eye rekindles, with a look that would seem to say, "Oh, how I despise you!" This woman, forty years ago, became Brigham Young's first wife. But who can be the victim of that malignant scorning? What poor mortal is being crushed between her clenched teeth? Can it be I, only a looker on—a harmless and unoffending Gentile? No. But we have discovered the study of her hate—the bohun upas that has been planted in her side. Yonder is a cluster of trees—they are aspen and maple—and under their thin, yellow-tinged tops is a bright-eyed woman of twenty summers, who now leans upon an old man's arm. By what power we know not, but, as if drawn by magic hand, our steps are directed thitherward. The now mistress of the heart and situation flashes winsome looks and breathes poetic words; he, old man that he is, and slave of sensualism, treads the floor of his own paradise, and smiles approving glances. This man is Brigham Young, and this woman his very last and much the prettiest wife. No wonder that that "old creature" looked the disagreeable. Perhaps there are others peeping from behind damask curtains who are also mourning the loss of their place in that old man's affections.

The Province of Masonry.

Masonry neither offers to take the place of christianity nor dose it claim, further than its injunctions to obey implicitly all moral laws may justly entitle it to such claim, to be her hand-maid. It does point by symbols and by emblems, as plain and as clear as noon-day's sun, to The Stone which the builders set at naught, and which has become the foundation stone, the Key in the mighty arch, in the spiritual building. It requires an implicit belief of the existence, and an avowal of individual trust in God. That same Star in the East which guide the ancient Magi, is an emblem of our Order, "Know thyself." is one of its first lessons. Our duty to God, to our neighbors and ourselves, are its imperative commands and requirements. Brotherly Love and Truth, Faith, Hope and Charity, are leading features in its economy. Its evidence, its theories, its required practices, come nearer the christian institutions than any other moral associations in the world; the spread of her principles, the diffusion of her teachings, would have a better effect than any other system which man can devise, to put down utterly to annihilate, that acerbity, and bitterness, and rancor, which are too frequently the bane of the political and religious world, and keep the best portions of society distracted and torn asunder.—Perkins.

CANNON making is now the principal business in Europe. Krupp, of Essen, Prussia, has orders on hand for guns to the aggregate number of 2200, and the total value of $3,000,000. Krupp has now turned out altogether 3500 steel guns of the value of $5,250,000.

THE New Bedford, (Mass.,) Mercury records this instance of munificence: "An appeal recently made to a religious society not more than a thousand miles off, in behalf of a benevolent enterprise, was met with a donation of three dollars. Of this sum one dollar was given by the sexton of the church, one by the bell-ringer, and the third represented the millionaires in the pews."

A WOMAN had her pocket picked on the Hudson river railroad train, and as she was poor her misfortune excited considerable sympathy. There was no clue to the thief, but three gentlemen, who placed great reliance on physiognomical indications, went through the train on a wager to see if they could detect the thief by his countenance. On comparing notes, it was found that the three, unknown to each other, had selected the same man, and on consultation with the conductor they learned that their supposed pick-pocket was a New York alderman.

IN entering upon another commercial year, with the experience of the past, fraught with the many vicissitudes incident to a changed system of agriculture, and for which most of our planters were little prepared, resulting in heavy loss to planter and merchant, as an experiment tried, we shall adopt a rigid cash system in our business—taking no risk, and making our sales prompt upon receipt of consignments, remitting proceeds with as little delay as possible; but in all cases obeying instructions of shippers, and using our best endeavors to promote the interest of our patrons.
Our arrangements for furnishing Supplies, Bagging, Rope, Gunnies, Groceries and Provisions are such, that we promise to furnish them at our lowest market price, and make it as much, or more, to your interest to order through us, than to purchase in person.
Hoping to receive your patronage and influence, we are, respectfully,

PATENT MEDICINES.

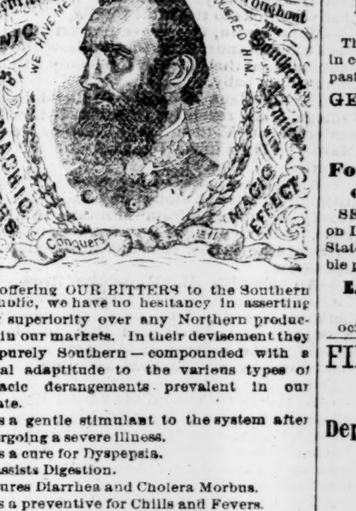

MRS. JACKSON'S
Queen Bess Complexion Wash.

THE following certificates, selected from hundreds in the possession of the proprietress, are confidently submitted to the public:

MRS. WOLCOTT'S CERTIFICATE.
QUINCY, ILL., November 5, 1866.
MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I certify to you, that seeing one of your circulars, which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and the highest medical authorities of the United States, certifying that your oils for the complexion and teeth were purely the oils, extracts and essences of flowers, and they warrant it when used according to directions to cure the worst and most difficult cases of nursing, sore mouth, canker of the stomach, bowels and dyspepsia. For scrofulous disorders, when used both internally and externally, it has no equal. Dear Madam, seeing this, and my little daughter, aged fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, accompanied with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and I having tried everything for its relief I could hear of, all to no purpose, I bought one bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that it has cured my child. She is now as well and hearty as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above affections may at once get a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief. Yours respectfully,
MRS. GEO. WOLCOTT,
Jersey street, bet. Sixth and Seventh.

MRS. WM. R. COLLINS' CERTIFICATE.
HANNIBAL, MO., August 22, 1866.
MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—I am most happy to inform you that after having suffered more than three years with what some physicians call nursing sore mouth, or canker of the mouth and throat, I tried various remedies, but found nothing to do me any good until I heard of your oils for the complexion and teeth, called "Queen Bess." I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am truly thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefitted by it, I remain,
Yours respectfully,
MRS. WM. R. COLLINS.

IN offering OUR BITTERS to the Southern Public, we have no hesitancy in asserting their superiority over any Northern productions in our markets. In their devisement they are purely Southern—compounded with a special adaptitude to the various types of stomacic derangements prevalent in our climate.
It is a gentle stimulant to the system after undergoing a severe illness.
It is a cure for Dyspepsia.
It assists Digestion.
It cures Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
It is a preventive for Chills and Fevers.
It is an invaluable companion for person traveling at all seasons of the year.
It is a HOME enterprise, and possesses true merit.

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF THE APPEAL.

A GOVERNMENT of white men for white men; and no political miscegenation.

LOYALTY to the Union of the STATES: FIDELITY to the Constitution in its true extent and meaning: Obedience to and maintenance of all law, State and National, constitutionally enacted.

RESISTANCE to Tyranny, Usurpation and Oppression, of one man or many; and to all encroachments upon the rights of freemen or of States, or upon the just and Constitutional prerogatives of any Department of the State or National Goverments.

NO ESTABLISHMENTS of Military despotisms, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no slaying of citizens by Military Commission, no interference with the Courts, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

STRICT SUBORDINATION of the Military to the Civil Power.

NO STANDING ARMIES of States in time of peace.

RESTORATION of disfranchised citizens to all rights and privileges of which they have been disseized; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the PAST, oblivion of offences; for the PRESENT and FUTURE, UNION, PEACE, LAW and ORDER.

PERPETUAL ASSURANCE to all freemen of the African race, of all the CIVIL rights of freemen.

NO REPUDIATION, by State or Nation, of any honest and lawful debt.

NO REVIVAL of old party differences; but a Union of all Conservative men, of all former parties, who revere the Constitution, to restore the old land-marks of the Government.

NO LEGISLATION to plunder one portion of the country for the profit of another portion.

WHATEVER IS JUST; whatever is RIGHT; whatever is of GOOD REPUTE, and worthy of the descendants of English freemen.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

No notice can be taken of anonymous Communications. Whatever is intended for insertion in the APPEAL, must be authenticated by the name and address of the writer, as a guarantee of his good faith and responsibility.

WHAT MEMPHIS SHOULD DO.

We have been informed, from a reliable and intelligent source, that the Board of Trade of the city of Louisville contemplate commissioning, during the next season, an agent to travel in West Tennessee, one in Arkansas, one in North Mississippi, one in North Alabama, and others, wherever they may be needed, to extend the trade of their city throughout the Southwest. These agents will be men of intelligence and character, who understand the various trade relations of our Southern cities, and whose social position will enable them to enforce their views upon the people among whom they may intermingle.

We can readily understand how this active effort to influence trade may throw thousands of dollars of profit into the hands of Louisville merchants, to which they will be fairly entitled, because they will have won it by their enterprise and sagacity.

Some of our merchants may sneer at this proposed plan of introducing new trade into their city. But we can assure them that their sneers will, like curses are said to do, "come home to roost."

St. Louis, some years ago, adopted this system, and has long since reaped golden harvests from it. There is no business and no city which is above individual exertion to extend its influence. Neither natural or artificial advantages can secure monopoly to either men or cities in this our day of competition. If Memphis would even retain her present trade, she must bestir herself. All her merchants and men of capital must exercise vigilance, industry, energy and enterprise. This they can only do through co-operative action. The theory of every man attending to his own business alone will not win. It is well enough in its place. It is necessary to individual success, when combined with public enterprise. But, unaided by the co-operative energy of the whole mercantile interest, it will not do. No man is worthy to be a merchant of Memphis, or of any other great city, who adopts and acts upon such a theory. It is equivalent to requiring other men to build up the trade, while the drone reaps the advantage of it. This cannot be. Yet, we regret to say, there is too much of this spirit in our city. The majority are waiting for others to develop the trade of the city, and to labor in all public enterprises—while they lag in wait and enjoy all the advantages. Such a spirit will ruin our trade and turn it over eventually to rival cities. Already our wholesale trade has suffered incalculably from this ruinous policy. There must be co-operative action. The Chamber of Commerce must be sustained. Our mercantile men must meet and consult about interests common to them all and vital to their welfare and the future prosperity of the city. Agents may be profitably employed to carry out their views. The country must be canvassed and the natural advantages of their trade set forth. It is idle to suppose that trade and business will flow in upon them, without extraordinary and special effort. The competition of our times, the demand for employment, the bids for trade are too great to expect it. If our merchants and business men do not bestir themselves and co-operate, and that right speedily, grass will grow in the streets where they are now laying down the Nicolson pavement.

WHAT IS NECESSARY TO RADICAL SUCCESS.

The editor of the New York Tribune, whatever may be said of GARRISON, GERRIT SMITH, BEECHER, and others, has done more to produce confusion and anarchy in this country than all other influences combined. We say this without intending any special compliment to Mr. GREELEY'S intellectual ability, but because we recognize it as a fact.

We believe, however, that his influence is rapidly passing from him. One of his latest effusions reduces him to the following deplorable and untenable position:

We entreat the Southern Conventions, therefore, to eschew carefully even the appearance of evil, and especially whatever might seem to savor of revenge or proscription. Make equal rights for all citizens your corner-stone, and bury in oblivion whatever is hateful in the past, while taking the amplest security against oppression in the future. Disappoint those who predict a new civil war as the result of black enfranchisement, and pile proof upon proof that universal justice is enduring peace. Show the world that you comprehend the exigency, and can read the lesson involved in the fate of the late aristocracy, who in seeking to extend and strengthen slavery, destroyed it. The assured predominance of republican principles, alike at the South and at the North, imperatively requires that the freedmen should prove safer, discreeter, more competent depositories of power than their late masters did.

Just think of it, that "the assured predominance of Republican principles, alike at the South and at the North, imperatively requires that the freedmen should prove safer, discreeter, more competent depositories than their late masters did."

The "late masters" here referred to were represented by such men as WASHINGTON, JEFFERSON, MADISON, MONROE, RANDOLPH, MACON, JACKSON, CLAY, CALHOUN, and a host of other distinguished upholders of the Government, as they understood it. Under their regime prosperity and happiness prevailed. Mr. GREELEY says that the freedmen must prove "safer, discreeter, more competent than they were." And yet this man stands at the head of the Radical newspaper press of the United States. We, who know the condition of the freedmen of the South, can only regard such ideas as the utterings of an incendiary, a fool or a knave. If the Radicals have got to carry through his proposition their doom is as certain as the fall of the caves.

"MORAL JUSTICE."

The editor of the New York Tribune, Mr. HORACE GREELEY, professes to stand upon the platform of "moral ideas," and to apply these principles in all his political disquisitions. What would be thought of the morality of a man who would open up the accounts of a man upon supposed wrongs he had received up to the days of our first progenitor? Yet Mr. GREELEY shows a willingness to do this, in the following extract from one of his editorials. If this shall be fairly done, perhaps, nay certainly, some of his Puritan ancestors will be compelled to disgorge, principal and interest, on the slaves they sold in the South during the existence of the African slave trade. But hear Mr. GREELEY on "moral justice:"

The New York World, silenced on all its predictions that the Convention would adopt proscriptive policies, calls attention to the fact that a member has introduced a resolution in favor of compelling masters to pay their slaves the value of their wages, deducting their board, etc., from the date of the Emancipation Proclamation to the time when they were no longer restrained of their freedom. This the World styles confiscation. There is a good deal of moral justice in the claim of the colored people to the net profits on their labor, during that period. The objection to the policy of collecting these debts is not the moral injustice of the claim, but the impolicy of a class who are so well able to take care of themselves as the blacks being too rigid in exacting what is due them from a class so little able to pay their debts as the whites. It may be better policy for the whole community to draw a vail over so fertile a source of litigation and expense. But it will be time enough to comment on it when the Convention becomes responsible for it.

THE President's message is pronounced by the New York Tribune to be a strange compound of statesmanship and passion. The New York Post says the message is striking both in style and logical ability. The New York Commercial Advertiser says the message "is an eminently able State paper. In taste and temper it is faultless. In the assertion of convictions, it is fearless. In statesmanship, it is comprehensive, clear, and, in most things, sound." The New York Times says "its style is clear and forcible. There is neither vagueness in its statements nor weakness in its phrases. But its temper savors far too much of arrogance."

LEGISLATIVE.

SENATE—SATURDAY.

A resolution was introduced adjourning the General Assembly from the 18th of December to the second Monday in January, 1868.

An amendment providing that no member should receive pay for more than seven days' absence was lost.

The railroad omnibus bill, as amended by the House, was concurred in by the following vote: 17 ayes to 5 noes.

A bill incorporating the Mineral Home Railroad passed its third reading and was transmitted to the House.

A bill requiring the Comptroller to audit the accounts of the members of the General Assembly and other parties, payable in specie. Passed.

Adjourned till 10 a.m Monday.

REINTERMENT OF CONFEDERATE DEAD AT MURFREESBORO.

The Murfreesboro Monitor says the work of reintering the Confederate dead at that place has been commenced under the direction of Capt. Ed. Arnold:

The ground selected is about a mile and a half south of the city, situated between the railroad and turnpike, commanding a view from each road, and has been tastefully laid off, and will not fail to meet the approval of those interested.

Capt. Arnold has already exhumed a great many, the majority unknown, with no possible way of ascertaining their names or commands. A single-case silver watch, No. 56,050, was found upon one body; a brass locket containing two photographs, which are disfigured, upon another, and a single case silver watch, No. 15,628, upon a third. These articles may lead to their identity.

It is the intention of the managers to proceed with the reinterment until accomplished, and to the friends of those who fell here, they appeal for assistance. The fund on hand is not sufficient, and having begun, they now ask aid to finish it. So far, this county has mainly contributed to accomplish what has been done, they now appeal to all those abroad, in and out of the State, who have husbands brothers and sons killed here to assist them. There are soldiers buried here from every Southern State, but few counties in those States who have not a member from it here amongst the unknown thousands, and they ask contributions from those whose nearest friends they seek to give that burial which the brave are entitled to and Christianity demands; where, although unknown, they may rest, but not be forgotten.

We hope the friends of the dead here in the States south of us will immediately take this matter in hand, and assist the ladies in accomplishing what they have generously begun, and let the last resting place of him who gave his life in your defense such as friendship demands and what a true friend and defender receives.

Vote on Impeachment.

The following is the vote in the House of Representatives on the "impeachment" of President Johnson for high crimes and misdemeanors:

Nays—Messrs. Adams, Allison, Ames, Archer, Ashley, of Nevada, Axtel, Bailey, Baker, Baldwin, Banks, Barnum, Beamen, Beck, Benjamin, Buckland, Burr, Chandler, Cook, Dawes, Daxon, Dodge, Eggleston, Eldridge, Eliot, Ferris, Ferry, Fields, Garfield, Getz, Glassbrumer, Galloway, Griswold, Grover, Haight, Halsey, Hamilton, Hawkins, Hill, Holman, Hooper, Hotchkiss, Hubbard, of Iowa, Hubbard, of West Virginia, Hubbard, of Connecticut, Hubbard, Humphrey, Ingersol, Johnson, Jones, Kerr, Ketchum, Knolt, Koontz, Laflin, Lawrence, of Pennsylvania, Lincoln, Marshall, Marvin, McCarthy, McCullough, Miller, of Pennsylvania, Moorhead, Morgan, Munger, Neblac, Nicholson, Peters, Phelps, Penham, Pile, Palants, Palsley, Pruyn, Plouts, Randall, Robertson, Robinson, Ross, Sawyer, Sitgraves, Smith, Spalding, Starkweather, Stewart, Stone, Tabor, Taylor, Upson, Vanaman, VanAuker, Van-Trump, VanWick, Washburn, of Wisconsin, Washburne, of Indiana, Washburne, of Massachusetts, Wilson, of Ohio, Wilson, of Iowa, Woodbridge and Woodward—108.

WISE LEGISLATION?

The Convention (so-called) in session at New Orleans propose wholesale revolution in the State laws, and constitution, as will be seen by the following:

The system of laws heretofore in use in this State, and known as the civil law system, together with all statutes enacted by previous Legislatures in accordance therewith, together with the revised statutes, civil code and code of practice, are hereby abolished, and the common law of England is adopted as the law of Louisiana, and all statutes of a general nature, and not local to the kingdom, passed prior to the fourth year of the reign of King James, are also adopted as the law of this State, until repealed by future legislation; except the common law statutes and provisions for imprisonment for debt; provided that no person shall ever be arrested or imprisoned for debt in this State: that the common law, as hereby adopted, shall go into operation and be in force within six months from the date of the promulgation of this constitution, that the law, public record and all records of judicial and legislative proceedings of this State shall be promulgated and preserved in the English language only and all publications of the same in foreign languages is hereby forever prohibited; all legal papers, proceedings or contracts drawn or preserved in any other language than the English, after the common law goes into operation, shall be null and void. Capital punishment in this State is hereby forever abolished.

Resolved, That no company or corporation now existing, or hereafter created, in this State, shall make any distinction of race or color in its rules or regulations.

—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says: "A telegram, from a thoroughly reliable source in New Orleans, says the best Republicans of that city are entirely satisfied with Gen. Hancock's course in revoking Mower's recent civil appointments there. This is in accordance with feeling here, where King Cutler and his gang are all deemed to be a set of political gamblers.

—A new style of lady's shoe for the Southern market is made at Lynn, Mass., with the sole thin as a wafer, and the heels very high and tapering to the circumference of a three-cent piece.

IN HIS lecture on Success, Mr. Greeley says there are a thousand college graduates walking the stone streets of New York, who do not know how to earn a living, while each of the three hundred thousand illiterate emigrants landed on our shores during the last year, is an addition to the wealth of the country.

EVER since the Democracy began the victory business, there has been a steady decline in prices, which is contrary to all the predictions of "what would be," that were made by Radical prophets before elections. Gold has tumbled down from 145 to 138, and dry goods are so low that it does not cost much more to dress now than it did before the war.

A GENTLEMAN residing a short distance north of Huntsville, Ohio, sold from his farm, a few days ago, a single curled black walnut tree to a Boston dealer for $500. The tree was not an exceedingly large one at that. The purchaser, after the tree had been fallen and its true value asertained, remarked that he would not take $2000 for it. We have quantities of walnut in Tennessee and Arkansas, often convenient to navigable streams or railroads, but its value seems to be unappreciated by our impoverished people.

Common Gavel.

The common gavel is an important instrument of labor, without which no work of manual skill can be completed; from which we learn that skill without industry will be of no avail, and labor is the lot of man; for the heart may conceive and the head devise in vain, if the hand be not prompt to execute the design. Masons are called moral builders. In their rituals they declare emphatically that a more noble and glorious purpose than squaring stones and hewing timbers is theirs—fitting immortal nature for that spiritual building not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. It is said that the construction of the pyramids of Egypt employed the labor of one hundred thousand men for many years; but it was only to build monumental piles, beneath whose shadows kings might rest. These pyramids are only temples for the dead; Masons are building one for the living. The pyramids are only mausoleums in which the bones of the mighty dead might repose in imperial magnificence. Masons are erecting a structure in which the God of Israel shall dwell forever. The pyramids shall crumble away, till not one stone shall be left upon another; but who shall count the years of immortality, the life-time of the soul, which is fitted for its place in the heavens? Who can define its outlines, or fathom its depths, or measure its journey? It is a stream which grows broader and deeper as it flows onward. An angel's eye cannot measure its length, nor an angel's wing travel to its farthest boundary. When earth's proudest monumental piles have crumbled away, and that sand been scattered by the desert winds, and the glory and greatness of earth shall be forgotten, then will the immortal be pluming its wings for loftier flights. It is a fountain whose sources are in the infinite, and whose placid waters flow on forever—a springtime that shall bloom, educating immortal mind for the present, the future, for all ages—is acknowledged to be one of the essential objects of Masonic labor. The builder builds for a century; Masons for eternity. The painter paints for a generation; they, for everlasting years.—Sickles' Freemans' Guide.

Preparing Poultry for Market.

To command the highest price in Boston market, the birds should not be fed for twenty-four hours before killed. Kill by sticking them in the back of the neck with a sharp-pointed knife; then hang up by the leg to bleed. Remove the feathers while the body is warm, clean the entrails carefully, then cut off the head, and draw the skin over the neck and tie it. After being thoroughly cooled pack firmly in boxes holding from one to two hundred pounds, using clean straw between the layers and on the bottom and top. Poultry dressed in this way will always bring from two to five cents per pound more than that which is wet picked, and can be much more readily sold when the market is dull.—Watchman and Reflector.

Comments on the Impeachment of President Johnson.

LONDON, December 10.—The action of the United States House, in refusing to impeach the President excites considerable comment.

The Times in an editorial highly praise the House for this refusal, and considers the result as re-opening the way for practical legislation. The Times fears, however, that the President will accept the action of the House as the indorsement of his policy, and concludes, "that all hopes of sound reconstruction must be deferred."

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The Speaker announced the following Chairmen of Committees: On Reconstruction, Stevens, of Pennsylvania; Revision of Laws of the United States, Pollard; Ordinance, Logan; Mines and Mining, Knott.

—AND—

VALUABLE TOWN LOTS

HAYSVILLE,

Memphis and Louisville Railroad,

(WYTHE DEPOT,)

TOGETHER with the entire HAYS TRACT of 4,000 acres, sub-divided into small Farms,

On Thursday, December 12th, 1867,

By direction of the Executors of Samuel J. Hays, deceased, we will sell, at public sale, to the highest bidder, the lots in the TOWN OF HAYSVILLE, as per plan, together with thirty farms, varying in size from 25 to 700 acres.
These Lots and Farms are situated twenty-four miles from Memphis, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. The convenient location and great fertility of these Farms eminently entitle them to the favorable notice of all who desire to engage in the growth of Cotton or Cereals. The advantages of a choice of ready access to markets above or below them, for what they sell or buy, the smaller lots in and around Haysville being only about one hour's travel from Memphis, affords those who desire it the opportunity of securing a cheap, convenient and healthy home in the country without interruption to their business in the city. Titles perfect.
TERMS—One-fourth cash, balance in one and two years, with interest. Trust deeds to secure deferred payments.

THE IMPENDING CRASH!

TO THE

CITIZENS OF MEMPHIS.

THAT THE money market is stringent, and nothing to warrant the hope that the near future may bring forth a better state of things, is but too strongly evidenced by the many and large failures, not alone in Memphis, but all over the country.
In view of those stern facts we have, after two week's diligent attention, succeeded in going through our immense stock from 1st to 4th floor, and marking down the same to prices that ill repay our labor.
As an enumeration of our IMMENSE AND WELL SELECTED STOCK would occupy too much time and space, we shall confine ourselves to a mention of the leading departments in our house, hoping thereby to attract the desired notice without resorting to the pettifogging system of enumerating "catch penny" prices in connection with certain articles of but little or no value at best.
Our house being one of the oldest—if not the Oldest Dry Goods Establishment in Memphis,

and, we presume, in point of reliability and the means to sustain any losses the times may inflict, second to none in the city, we trust any announcement emanating from us may be received in the true and genuine light it is intended.
We have never carried on our business on the strength of newspaper "puffs" and placards, nor do we intend to do it now; but Dry Goods being about to resume their old standard value, we think it but due to our many kind old patrons to make them aware of the great and sudden decline in our prices.
The departments will be comprised in the following, viz;

CLOAK AND SHAWL ROOM,

An elegant assortment of
BLACK VELVET DE LYON SACQUES,
BLACK AND COLORED do. do.,
BLACK CLOTH do. do.,
CHINCHILLA, do.
A large and well assorted stock of
WOOL SHAWLS,
HOODS, NUBIAS,
BREAKFAST CAPES, ETC., ETC.

FURS, FURS, FURS.

An extensive variety of FURS at very attractive prices.

SILK DEPARTMENT.

A newly selected stock of SILKS—some nice evening shades.

Our Line of Black Silks Defies Competition,

as regards quality and price.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT,

Embraces
IRISH POPLINS in all shades and colors,
FRENCH, NORWICH, REGISTER,
LYONNAISE and VELVET POPLINS.
Also, a large stock of
MERINOS,
EMPRESS CLOTH,
BLACK AND GOLD—in endless variety,
BOMBAZINES,
WOOL PLAIDS, ETC., ETC.
Some beautiful new goods for Walking and Dressing Suits.

HOSIERY & GLOVE DEPARTMENT.

A full and beautifully selected stock of
LADIES' AND MISSES' HOSIERY,
ALEXANDRE'S GLOVES.
A full line of Ladies', Gents', Youths' and Misses' Underwear.

Linen and Housekeeping Department.

We have the most complete stock. Irish Linens from the best recognized manufacturers. Table Damasks—single and double, Napkins and Doylies, Towels and Towelling, Crash, etc., etc.
The most complete stock of Blankets and Flannels we have ever had. Counterpanes and Quilts—a large stock.

CLOTH DEPARTMENT.

A magnificent stock of Black Cloths—French, Italian and German—Tweeds for Boys' Suits, Scotch and West of England Tweeds, Cloakings—extremely pretty.

Boot and Shoe Department.

A complete stock of Miles Boots and Shoes.

TO PLANTERS.

Our stock of Planters' Goods is too well known to need any remarks other than call attention to it.
It is replete with Boots, Shoes and Brogans, Hats, Clothing in endless variety and of best material.

PLAIN AND PLAID LINSEY.

Kerseys and Jeans, Osnaburgs and Stripes.
In fact everything that is needed by the Planter in the shape of Dry Goods, and at figures that will insure his satisfaction.
In addition to the above many inducements, we have for Salesmen young men who, for attention and politeness, and knowledge of their business, cannot be excelled, if equalled, in this city.
As we are not "closing out" nor running away from the city, we don't desire to make any statements that will meet refutation; therefore give us a call, and thereby satisfy yourselves and gratify us.

FINLEY'S CHURN DASHER.

GOT ONE OF THEM YET? GOT ONE OF WHAT, SIR?

WHY, ONE OF THE "FINLEY CHURN DASHERS."

WHY DO YOU ASK ME THAT QUESTION, SIR?

Because one of them is needed, no doubt, and that badly, among your household conveniences, that the laborious and troublesome item of churning may become an agreeable recreation to the ladies, upon whom such duties usually devolve.

What's the article? What's the description? What's it do, pray, Sir?

Well, it is simply two screw-propeller wheels attached to the lower end of a staff or handle which is placed in the "old fashioned" wooden or tub churn, and worked in the same manner precisely as the "old Dasher"- these two wheels revolve rapidly and in counter directions at every up and down movement of the "Dasher," completely disengaging and cutting the cream into the minutest particles; while at the same time by aid of the "air beds" in each division of the wheels, keeps the whole bulk of the cream supplied with constant currents of fresh air, thus securing by the simplest process the true principles of "Good Butter Making."

Well, sir, is the thing simple—very simple?

Why, so very simple when seen, that not a word of explanation is necessary. Why "Biddy," "Aunt Dinah," or the eight year old child can both understand and use it, and couldn't for their lives imagine any other purpose for it.

Is it durable and substantial, sir?

It is made of the best Sheet Zinc—will not rust—strong—neat, and with ordinary care, will last as long as you and your grand-children's children.

Long enough; well, my friend, does it make GOOD BUTTER and QUICK?

It does not only make good Butter, but about ONE FOURTH MORE, to a given amount of cream, under like circumstances of quality and temperature, and in about ONE HALF THE TIME required by the use of the "old dasher." Am, however, quite ready to confess that it will not make Butter as quick as the boasted "Five Minute" and other "lightning" Churns, nor would we have it so quick, for the very plain and simple reason that the extraordinarily rapid operation of such Churns yields as the result a mass of SOFT, LARDY, uninviting stuff, instead of those RICH, GRAINY, WAXY, FIRM and LIVELY QUALITIES which constitute REAL GOOD BUTTER.

Well, sir, I have one of the "old fashioned" Churns—an old family relic of several generations past, and do I understand you that nothing more is wanted than one of the "FINLEY DASHERS?"

Nothing else whatever to complete the SIMPLEST, CHEAPEST, and MOST SATISFACTORY CHURNING APPARATUS that the world has yet produced.

Well, friend, once more—excuse me, sir—right well pleased, but a little suspicious. Can't help it. Are you sure this is not one of the Yankee humbugs—one of the "Machine Nutmegs," or one of the "Hub of the Universe Hams" sort of tricks; such hams that would, to look upon, bring a "broad guage" grin to the phiz of the most fastidious epicure,—but with somewhat of a change in the "programme and scenery" when casting a sly peep at the cook after many fruitless efforts to slice a broil or two. Ugh! such looks and such "tonguing" as all understand who have been "thusly done for."

Methinks I discover a mutual sympathy, a similarity of experience and a similar determination to avoid all humbugs, especially with the "Yankee" prefix. My friend, "FINLEY'S DASHER" IS NO HUMBUG—not a bit of it, sir. 'Tis a "home invention," and will upon its own true merits, win its way into every household in the land, North and South. The Dasher is open to competition, and for "common sense," every day practical use and household economy, we say to Yankee or anybody else, BEAT IT IF YOU CAN.

AGENTS FOR THE UNITED STATES.

Agents Wanted Everywhere,

FOR "FINLEY'S CHURN-DASHER."

The FINLEY CHURN DASHER combines so fully the requisite qualities of simplicity, economy and practical utility, as to place it at the head of all other implements for similar purposes, and cannot fail to recommend itself most forcibly to the common sense and good judgment of housekeepers everywhere, and to be regarded as one of the indispensable household articles, and more especially so with the people of the Southern States, who now feel so greatly the need of time, money and labor-saving inventions.

Remember that the retail price has been fixed at FOUR DOLLARS each, everywhere; and that the proprietor intends to hold and exercise the exclusive right to the manufacture and sale of the Dasher for the whole United States, and cannot therefore be obtained through any other than authorized agencies.

Remember that the wholesale price to Agents has been fixed at a figure to insure a large profit to such agents as may handle it with industry and tact, and that such agents can, with a cash capital of one hundred to one thousand dollars, make more money, in less time, with a less trouble and with less risk than many others all around you with thousands of capital invested in other pursuits.

Remember, that active, stirring, energetic men, who are willing to "pull off coat and roll up sleeves," CAN, with a small capital, realize one hundred per cent. profit at every thirty to sixty days—inducement enough, certainly; and we are prepared to offer just such to the right sort of men. Understand distinctly, however, that no such promises are made to "lazy men," for they can't do it. Away, then, with complaints of "hard times," "no employment," "no situations." Come and get employment and good pay—employment for thousands—employment both pleasant and highly remunerative. The field of operation is as wide as the whole country—choose your own grounds—States, Counties, Cities, Towns and the Rural Districts—North, South, East and West—all lie before you. Can visit them on foot and on horseback, by wagon, railroad and steamboat, and IT WILL PAY YOU WELL TO DO IT, for wherever you may go with the "Dasher," you will find ready customers, and you will soon laugh at the "lazy loafer" who creeps around all day long crying "hard times and worse coming." Young men, "accept the situation" to make your own living and by your own individual efforts, and here is a good opportunity of doing so. Throw overboard "false pride," "politics," "fashion," "2:40 teams," "golden dreams" and "downy ease," and take hold of this work with a vim; "drive it" ahead, and soon the empty purse will be full—running over—and friends will spring up by the legion.

Remember that in addition to the large profits that there are TWO PRIZES at stake, and we want you to get one or both of them; TWO HUNDRED and FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Remember to call and see us at once, or write for particulars, with stamp for answer.

WANTED—THE PATENT

AURORA OIL.

We want men everywhere to study their OWN INTEREST. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is NO MORE explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney—it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold worth.

BUSINESS.—We request that our advertising patrons hand in their favors at the Counting Room by six o'clock p.m., to insure insertion next day. Obituary and Death notices will be received at the Composition Room up to eleven o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Hereafter individual bills of any employee or proprietor of this paper will not be allowed as an offset against accounts for advertising. All bills against the APPEAL will be paid on presentation, and no bill will be allowed unless contracted by me or by my authority. JOHN AINSLIE, Cashier and Business Manager.

DENTAL.—The next meeting of the Dentists' Association of Tennessee, will meet at Jackson on the 20th. Dr. W. T. Arrington, of this city, is their Secretary.

TEMPERANCE FAIR.—The ladies and other friends of the cause, who are willing to assist in conducting the Fair for the benefit of the Sons of Temperance, are requested to meet the Committee of Arrangements at the "Club Hall," Greenlaw building, Wednesday, 11th inst., at two o'clock p.m.

MASONIC.—At a meeting of Kilwinning Lodge No. 341, held for the purpose of organizing under its charter, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing Masonic year: George Mellersh, W. M.; Frank A. Ramsay, S. W.; James D. Ruffin, J. W.; John Ainslie, Treasurer.

WE call special attention to the great sale of lots and farms at Haysville, on the Memphis and Ohio railroad, advertised to take place to-morrow, by Messrs. Royster, Trezevant & Co., Auctioneers. See their advertisement.

PERSONAL.—Col. R. W. Johnson, of Arkansas, is in town, putting up at the Worsham House. The Colonel looks as well as in days of yore.

Mr. J. L. Johnston, formerly the city editor of the Post, died at Toledo, Ohio, some days since.

LOST WATER.—At the fire on the corner of Second and Gayoso streets, on Monday night, Capt. Jack Reed's engine should have thrown the first water, and would doubtless have done so but for the wretched condition of Shelby street. The team is one of the best in the city, and the crew fearless and brave.

ASSAULT.—A gay and festive young negro, who rejoices in the cognomen of Dandy DeLashea, was arrested yesterday on the new Raleigh road, near Brown Sugar town, on a warrant issued by Mr. Justice Miller, for cruelly beating one of his concubines (Nancy Coe). He will be examined on the charge to-day.

STOCK ROBBERY.—Some thieves, who had more enterprise in pursuing their unholy calling than respect for the laws, entered the stables of Mr. Stillman, between Madison and Monroe streets, yesterday morning, and stole a bay horse belonging to Mr. Stillman, as well as a gray mule belonging to Charley Martin. One long eared animal was left.

BASE BALL.—The third and last of a series of match games between the Pride of the South and Bluff City Base Ball Clubs will be played to-day, at 1 o'clock, on the grounds of the Enterprise, at the corner of Vance and Lauderdale streets. This match will decide the championship in West Tennessee.

RECOVERED.—The human hair goods stolen some days since from Madame Guilmard, No. 62½ Jefferson street, were recovered yesterday by officers John Marre and Tom Mahoney. They were returned to the owner by the sheriff. We did not learn of the arrest of the guilty parties.

STEALING PIGS.—A colored fellow-citizen named Simon Allen was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Mr. Justice Miller, charged with stealing and killing three pigs, the property of Mr. H. E. Cameron, who resides in Fayette county. The accused was arrested by Mr. Sheriff Winters, and will be held to await a requisition from Fayette.

STOCK THIEVES.—Amongst the many depredations committed by the stock thieves during the last few days as reported to the police, we find that Messrs. H. C. Hampton & Bro. lost, on the second instant, two mules. A planter three miles South of Germantown, lost two of the same species. This, added to Stillman's loss, makes the record fair for the times.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.—Col. M. C. Galloway, Maj. W. H. Rhea, and Capt. Cluskey, editors and proprietors of the Avalanche, were arrested about five o'clock yesterday afternoon, by Sheriff Winters, on a process issued by Judge Hunter. The cause of the arrest is said to have been made on account of an article that appeared in the local columns of the Avalanche yesterday morning. How are you, freedom of the press?

STEALING DIAMONDS.—Mr. William Ringwold, who is located on Poplar street, was, a short time since, the happy possessor of a pair of diamond sleeve buttons. Yesterday morning he found them missing. Having good reason to believe that one Miss Bell, a negro servant, knew of their whereabouts, had her arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Miller and executed by officer Porter. The accused was furnished with quarters at the expense of the county.

COTTON STOLEN.—At an early hour yesterday morning three bales of the staple was stolen from the Titus warehouse. It belonged to W. J. Futhey & Co., and was marked J. H. N. During the day our young friend Collins hunted it up, and realized the stamps for the same. Harrington Cox and Job Robinson were arrested and lodged in the Adams street stationhouse. They will come before the Clerical Commissioner this morning, and will doubtless be handed over to the State.

JUST received by Joe Locke, 22 Jefferson street, Avalanche Building, Godey for January, Harper's Bazaar, National Freemason, Waverly Magazine, London Times, London News, Army and Navy Journal, a large assortment of Beadle's Dime Novels, German Leslie's Scientific American, Base Ball Chronicle, Semi-Literati, Courier des Etats Unis, Harper's Weekly, Police News and Gazette, Leslie's Pleasant Hours, Literary Album, Southern Society, Home Journal, Irish American Citizen, and all of the latest dailies and weeklies. Keeps constantly on hand books, stationery, etc.

ANOTHER FAIR.—During any single season, since the close of the war, Memphis can boast of holding a greater number of fairs and festivals, realizing more money, than any other city in the Southwest. Our people, if poor, are charitable, and on every possible occasion are not slow to dispense the milk of human kindness. The next celebration of this kind will shortly be held at the Memphis Club Hall, for the benefit of the congregation of the "Children of Israel." The ladies and gentlemen having this matter in charge are working vigorously, and will surely bring the fair to a successful termination. We wish it all success.

ALDERMANIC.—We this morning announce Mr. Thomas Moffet as a candidate for Alderman of the Eighth Ward; and we take great pleasure in testifying to his ability and integrity. Closely identified with the best interests of the city, he has, for years past, been the fearless enemy of extravagance and corruption, and the persistent advocate of economy. More than one "City Dad" has suffered from his trenchant pen; and numerous jobs have been spoiled by his opportune and complete exposures of the trickery of those who should have protected the taxpayers' interests. We consider him among the best, if not the very best, selection which could have been made by the citizens of the Eighth Ward; and will reflect credit on his constituents—his election is certain.

A BLACK PHŒNIX COMES FROM THE ASHES.

THE MAYORALTY—A TERRIBLE STRUGGLE.

Its Results—Fortunes of Negro-Governed Cities—Alarm of Business Men.

There are surely strong inducements for zealous co-operation among those who would save Memphis from black domination. A black guardsman arrayed in Metropolitan toggery; a black Phœnix emerging from an eloquent Alderman's seat to dazzle us with his splendid oratory; a colored tax-gatherer, and blacker Mayor, with a white skin, are embodiments of enduring public calamities. If there be a possible mode of escape, we are impelled by every consideration of public good to adopt it. Of two or three Radical candidates, it may become us to choose the least of evils. Perhaps a new candidate, having eschewed partizanship, as the representative of Conservatism, may unite moderate men of all parties. As yet there is no mode of ascertaining, with even proximate accuracy, the number of colored voters. How many will gather here during winter; what will be the effect of anticipated suffering; how many blacks will abandon the country and seek food in the city, or whether multitudes now unemployed in Memphis will retire to the interior? are inquiries which none may solve. It is only known that "color" is loyalty and citizenship, and that the result of elections depends upon the number of blacks in Memphis. Until facts of this character are more accurately ascertained, it is hardly proper for any individual to commit himself to an aspirant for municipal honors. Those who would defeat Beecher must concur and co-operate. It may become our duty, as a dernier resort and choice of evils, to support the least objectionable of Radical candidates, and if this be insufferable, it is surely our policy to have a candidate in the field who may secure the support of every citizen who prefers an honest and capable administration, to the utter destruction of public credit, the augmentation of public burdens and multiplication of offices and sinecures. Even as the rate of State and county taxation has been increased from eight cents on each hundred dollars to one hundred and thirty-five cents, even so will salaried offices in the city be multiplied. As the jail must be furnished with a loyal psalm-singer, to pump piety into petty thieves, so must the city calaboose have a salaried temperance lecturer. There is no end to the multiplication of offices. Radicalism is an insane itching for place. Our ancient friend James Davis, discharges the functions of two lucrative offices, and never once staggers beneath the burdens of public duties; and every lesser light that glimmers faintly through the crevices of league rooms burns brightly, or flickers out, as the chances of acquiring place are augmented or lessened. Mr. Bowen counted the costs, traded with Beecher, entered the league a veritable white man. He has been born again, and now presents himself to an amazed city, black as the nether extremity of midnight. A tax gatherer, above all others, should be an honest man. Mr. Bowen is guilty of an act of political tergiversation so palpably selfish and paid for, that he loses public confidence that he may hold public office. The less he is esteemed, by those who must pay taxes, the more by those who would plunder the community. He will have a delightful duty to discharge. It will be his province to exact money from those who will object more strenuously to his election than to the triumph of Beecher. Loyal Leagues detest those who once bought and sold colored men, and now, forsooth, Mr. Bowen has sold himself to black men. He is highly prized because he is a veritable slave to office. The more thorough his devotion to place the more perfect his Radicalism. We are not amazed at his success. He has given an illustration of the peculiar virtues of his partizan associates, more perfect than that which shines and glistens on the greasy official vestments of the antique fossilized James Davis. Mr. Bowen was doubtless nominated because Loyal Leagues well know that in him and his conduct every good citizen felt himself humiliated. As, when we enter Hunter's dirty Court and behold some abject, degraded specimen of human kind burdened with infamy—when we blush that the creature before us is of our own race—so the people of Memphis shudder and are sickened by the contemplation of that utter obliviousness of right and honor, which impels the weak and avaricious to exchange an honorable name for office or pelf.

A PROPER CANDIDATE.

If facts, to be ascertained, may enable us to discard those candidates, who, in office, would adhere to the tenets and supporters of extreme Radicalism; if we may possibly elect a Mayor, honest, capable, and unaffected by that insanity which afflicts a zealot; if we can do better than make a choice of evils; if Beecher, Shaw, Fitch and Smith may be discarded; it surely becomes us to concentrate our forces upon a Conservative aspirant, having fewest enemies and most friends. He should not be a partizan. His past conduct should not repel Republican voters. There are very many Republicans, business men, interested in the prosperity of the city, who would co-operate with us in supporting any good and capable citizen, whose election would not be hailed as a partizan triumph, and whose official conduct would maintain order and the kindly relations subsisting between blacks and whites. These Republicans may control a large colored vote. There are colored property holders who shudder when contemplating the ruin that may be wrought here, as in New Orleans, by the supremacy of Beecher-Bowen Radicalism. They have felt the weight of Barbour Lewis' squarely built body of Radicalism, that squeezes out one hundred and thirty-seven cents from every hundred dollars in the county. They shudder when reflecting that every officer and member of each Loyal League will demand a place and must share the plunder extorted from an impoverished people. The poorer we become, as shown by the policy of Barbour Lewis' court, the heavier the exactions to which we are subjected.

NAME A BETTER MAN.

Surely good citizens would prefer the election of a chief magistrate whose success may guaranty peace, order and repose. All confess that the triumph of Beecher would be the signal for alarm, for dissensions, even for bloody conflicts. That Memphis would be transformed into a Timbuctoo, none may doubt. That burdens would grow, and the capacity to bear them be lessened, none deny. He would be richest who owns least. There would be no incentive to industry, for the reason that they are robbed who have acquired fortunes. If blacks gather here, even now, till certain districts of the city and suburbs are shadowed by a pall of gloom, Beecher need only lift his scepter to invest Memphis with Simmerian darkness. An hundred thousand breadless, penniless blacks, starved by a Radical cotton tax, would be summoned from plantations everywhere along the Mississippi, by the elevation of Beecher to the chief magistracy of Memphis. To defeat his election is the purpose of every good citizen. To accomplish this end, neither time, nor money, nor concessions of interest and prejudices should be spared. Mayor Lofland has announced his purpose to remain in the field. He has encountered, like bankers and business men, a succession of unanticipated evils. His plans, like theirs, have often come to grief. The causes that have operated so disastrously upon individual efforts and fortunes have been encountered by his administration. His plans have been thwarted, not only by extraneous causes, but the Board of Aldermen has furnished aspirants for his place who may have interposed obstacles to his success. There may be better men who would have the place, but we doubt whether one can be found who can present a stronger resistance to Loyal Leagues, who has fewer enemies, whose political history renders him less objectionable to all classes of political thinkers. The fact that he now holds office gives him greater strength than that wielded by any alderman. In point of intelligence, native ability and moral worth, he is surely the equal of any of his competitors, and in saying this there are none who would ascribe to us a purpose to flatter Mr. Lofland. He has kept himself aloof from partizanship, though his antipathy to rampant Radicalism has never been questioned. Facts may be presented to justify a change, but as at present advised we deem Mr. Lofland the most available candidate of those who would defeat that combination of plunderers who have destroyed every Southern city whose government they have grasped. It is not our purpose to commit ourselves to the support of Mr. Lofland throughout the contest; on the contrary, whenever a stronger man, representing his sympathies and opinions claims our aid he shall have it. Just now Mr. Lofland has the field, and is entitled to it. In fact he is entitled to a fair trial, which has not been given him.

ANOTHER BAIT.—It is known that "certain kinds of fish" bite at red tape, and some at "spoons." Those who feel disposed to invest or bite can do so with the following facts before them: The Post offers to furnish their Weekly (weakly?) at three dollars per annum as per advertisement, and two dollars as per editorial—the latter invariably in advance. For the benefit of those who bite at red tape, we append the following extract from our Court records: "In the case of J. M. Tommeny et al vs. John Eaton et al, the complainants allege in their bill that they are stockholders in the Memphis Post, and charge that John Eaton and L. B. Eaton have fraudulently credited contributions as their own capital stock, and money received for advertisements, and that they have generally mismanaged the business of the concern." Comment is unnecessary.

THE CONCERT.—One of the most delightful entertainments it has been our good fortune to attend for the last few years took place at the Memphis Club Hall last evening, and it is with no little regret that, owing to unavoidable absence during the early part of the evening, we are unable to make any special mention of the first part. The Wanderer's song, by the Concordia Society, and Mr. Julius Nathan, was very well rendered, and, notwithstanding the chorus numbered twelve or fifteen, the deep, full and powerful voice of Mr. Nathan was equal to the occasion; and his bass solo was excellent. We do not believe Carl Formes could have rendered it better. The next piece—Selections from Martha, by Miss Julia R. Kaufman—was well played, although her trepidation slightly interfered with her performing with perfect correctness a piece apparently arranged to display wonderful execution; still, for an amateur, she is certainly entitled to great credit; and her graceful and delicate touch is equaled by very few. The audience were so enthusiastic in their applause, that Miss Kaufman was compelled to reappear, and performed most admirably that most fascinating morceau The Raindrop, in which she displayed more fully than in the first piece, a grace in execution, a delicacy in expression, which kept the audience spell-bound and was received with the most rapturous applause. Mrs. A. Marks followed with a song, Dream Messengers, by Hoffman—a beautiful piece, and rendered with all the effect which a clear, sweet and highly cultivated voice could give. Like Miss Kaufman, the song was too great a treat to part with Mrs. Marks without hearing from her again, and in response to continued and enthusiastic applause, she favored the delighted audience with the aria from Robert le Diable, in a manner that was acknowledged with enthusiasm which would have delighted even the most exigeante Prima Donna. Our space will not allow us to give a more extended notice of the remaining pieces. Mr. Hollenberg deserves special notice for the masterly manner in which he performed his violin solo from I'Lombardi. Whilst we were congratulating ourselves that we had, at least, arrived in time to hear a part of the concert, we were assured that we had missed a treat in not hearing the aria for Baritone, A Tanto Amor, from La Favorita, by Mr. L. Leopold. We cannot close this brief and hurried notice without paying a small tribute to the Concordia Gesangverein, which, considering it is composed of about twenty gentlemen who have been organized a few months, deserve very great credit for the creditable manner they acquitted themselves, and contributed fully their share to the evening's entertainment. We sincerely trust that our citizens may have frequent opportunities of hearing a repetition of such entertainments, which cannot but elevate the taste for music in our city. The gentlemen under whose auspices the entertainment was gotten up, Julius Nathan, Jacob Menken, Wm. Stix, Gabe Klein and Sam Shloss, have reason to congratulate themselves for the success they have met with, in giving one of the most agreeable entertainments of the season. May we have many more such.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received Waverly Magazine, Harper's Bazaar, Wilkes' Spirit, Saturday Night, Police News, Police Gazette, Chimney Corner, LaCrosse Democrat, Peterson's Magazine, and Godey's Ladys Book for January, 1868, and dailies from everywhere.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—At this house last night the drama entitled The Long Strike was produced to a fair audience. The play is one of Bourcicault's sensations, and is not devoid of merit. The star, Miss Cecile Rush, played the "Factory Girl," and was creditably supported by Shirley France, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Frank Roche, Mr. Geo. Mitchell. Sloan was good, as he usually is. The piece will be repeated to-night.

THE VARIETIES.—This place of amusement was well filled last night by an appreciative male audience. The dancing of the ladies, acting of the gentlemen, and performances of the dogs, gave good satisfaction.

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT—Wm. M. Smith, Judge. The divorce case of Stillman vs. Stillman commenced on last Saturday, will continue to occupy the attention of the Court to-day. A large number of depositions yet remain to be read to the Court and Jury. The case will probably be concluded this evening. A calendar will be published for to-morrow. The orders entered on yesterday are as follows:
Lewis vs Baugh, final decree.
Taber vs Taber, divorce decree.
Fennell vs Montgomery, reference to C. & M.
Davis vs Davis, divorce decree.
Montgomery vs Montgomery, reference to C. & M.
Dickenson vs Coffee, demurrer sustained.
Martin vs Davidson, decree for partition.
Judah vs Powell, order for new bond, etc.
Kinholz vs Elliot, execution quashed.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge.—The cases set for trial to-day are as follows:
698 Spiegel vs Delap.
549 Jones vs Barnell.
1015 Foley vs Folsey.
378 Kemoner vs Pollack et al.

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT—Geo. W. Reeves, Judge. The cases set for trial to-day are as follows:
102 Bartlett vs Crenshaw et al.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND BUSINESS.

Weather dark and gloomy, but warm, with indications of snow and rain. Our midnight dispatches will give the stage of water at Louisville, and the latest news from Pittsburg. On the 8th the Coal departed for Cincinnati, the towboat Arab, with ten flats containing twenty thousand bushels, and the towboat Hays with ten flats containing twenty thousand bushels. At noon on Sunday there had been a 30 inch rise at Brownsville, and 36 inches at Cookstown. "At Cincinnati," says the Enquirer of Monday, "the river swelled 7 inches in the 24 hours ending last evening, and had risen 15 inches altogether up to that time. The rise comes from the Little Kanawha and Muskingum principally. The Big Kanawha had only risen 6 inches Saturday morning, and was then about on a stand. The water coming will hardly make a rise of 2 feet here. The cold weather is very unfavorable, and brings us to consider the probability of a freeze-up, which would be a positive calamity to almost all classes of people." The Commercial of the same date says: "The weather was intensely cold at Pittsburg and points east last night. The Monongahela river was on a stand at Morgantown, with 50 inches in the channel; at Greensboro 7 feet; at Brownsville it had risen 4½ feet during the 24 hours ending last night, and was still rising slowly, with 9½ feet in the channel. At Pittsburg the Monongahela was rising, with 4½ feet on the pier marks, and 4½ feet on the Alleghany marks—backwater. Here, the Ohio river was on a stand last night, with 3½ feet to Louisville, 30 inches in the canal, and from 28 to 36 inches along the Lower Ohio. It was cold enough here yesterday, and Saturday night, to make thin shore ice. The rise at Pittsburg is not sufficient to let out coal-boats. At Wheeling, last night, the weather was cold and the river full of ice, making fast, many cakes reaching from Wheeling Island to the Virginia shore." Hence to Cairo we have 6 feet large to report, with the channel cutting out rapidly. Hat Island is still an eyesore to boats bound down.

Boats in Port.

Southerner, Henry Ames, Paragon, Coutness, Sam Hale.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Henry Ames, Capt Frank Hicks, having all the cotton she wants will get away positively to-day for New Orleans at 5 p.m. She went in last trip with 3500 bales—the largest cargo of the season. Her passenger accommodations are not surpassed. Messrs. Sullivan and Page are her clerks. The two latter are well known Memphians, and are clever, competent and entirely reliable.

The elegant steamer Mollie Able will be in port to leave at 5 p.m. to-day for New Orleans. She is large and comfortable, and said to be the finest low-water steamer now afloat. Capt. Simms is master, and Jake Sedam is chief clerk.

The Southerner has laid over until Friday. She leaves on that day for New Orleans. Dick Mason is master, and Clay Rice is clerk, assisted by Alex. Stewart.

The Tennessee, Capt. Devenney, will leave promptly at 12 m. to-day for Cairo. Her passenger accommodations are excellent, and no more courteous and gentlemanly officer can be found on the river.

The Sam Hale, Capt. Walker, leaves for Cincinnati to-day at 5 p.m.

The fine packet Centralia will be in port to leave for the Arkansas river today at 5 p.m. She is one of the best boats now running in that river, and is popular with travelers.

The Paragon, Capt. Sam McPheeters, is the regular St. Louis packet for to-day. She connects at Cairo with the trains for all points East and North. Mr. McCreight is clerk.

The American, Capt. Reese Pritchard, gets away to-day for the Arkansas.

A negro deck hand fell overboard off the Commercial and was drowned.

A passenger on the Lizzie Gill was knocked off the hurricane roof of that steamer to the main deck by the breaking of some rigging while the boat was sparring off Hat Island. He caught the till rope which saved his life, but his jaw was badly broken in the fall.

The Tennessee departs for Cairo with 450 bales of cotton. The Adam Jacobs, for St. Louis, had 650 bales; and the Longworth, for New Orleans, also got some of the precarious article.

A heavy ice gorge formed in the Missouri last week at Arago.

John K. Moody & Co., of No. 206 Front street, have been appointed agents of the Empire Transportation Company. This is the celebrated Dart Line.

The following boats were at the Cincinnati landing on Sunday: Sherman, New York, Starlight, Shamrock, Lizzie Hopkins, Minneola, American, Ida Rees, Alaska, W. F. Curtis, Darling, Melnotte, Robt. Moore, Cottage No. 2, Columbia.

A twelve inch rise is reported coming out of the lower Missouri.

Work was stopped at the Whittaker Iron Works, on Thursday last. All the boiling furnaces up at the Wheeling Iron Works were dark and cold. Only the nail machines were in operation. We trust these suspensions are but temporary, as hundreds of laborers are thus thrown out of employment.

Gen. Butler's popularity in the South is so great that the owners of the new steamboat Governor Allen, Capt. John Smoker, intended for the Red river trade and which is now fitting out at the port of Louisville, have thought it expedient in providing the ladies' state-rooms with an article of furniture that formed an essential part of the nitre bureau of the Confederate Ordinance Department, to have its interior delicately embellished with a portrait of the General in the uniform of an officer of his rank in the army of the United States.

A great gale occurred on Lake Ontario Friday night. The canal at Buffalo is frozen over. Weather intensely cold.

Capt. Liter's new towboat, the A. L. No. 1, struck a rock at Spottsville, on Green river, Friday evening, and sunk. We have no particulars. She is entirely new and has made but two or three trips.

The Wm. White has been withdrawn from the Evansville and Green river trade, and is to try the Cumberland river.

Six insurance companies, outside of the Underwriters, insured freight shipped on the Ocean Wave and barges.

The first steamboat that navigated Barren river was the "United States," in 1833, under command of Capt. Garett Pitts. The United States was a small side-wheel boat, and originally intended to ply as a mail packet between Louisville and the mouth of Salt river.

THE DESOTO

Commercial College.

A NIGHT SESSION, IN CONNECTION with this College, is now inaugurated. As a temporary arrangement, the Class meets in the SOUTHWESTERN PUBLISHING HOUSE, No. 37 SOUTH COURT STREET.
The course of instruction is eminently practical as well as scientific, embracing everything necessary to fit young men for the efficient discharge of the duties of an Accountant and Book-keeper in a merchant's office. The student goes through precisely the same routine of journalizing, posting into his ledger, and closing his books, and then making out his balance sheet, as he would in actual business. This process is renewed an indefinite number of times, till he becomes as familiar with these operations and as expert in performing them, as if he had spent a long apprenticeship in the Counting House.
TERMS.—For Night Session (in advance) one month, $8; three months, $20.

Stenography.

W—Y[illegible],

This elegant and beautiful art, so indispensable to the public journalist, the lawyer, clergyman and student, and so invaluable to the business man, is taught successfully in TEN LESSONS for $10. KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

CAT-GUT CUSHION,

Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 19, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)
It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the table. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.
The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.
Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.
Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.
Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.
Full size Tables cut down for $100.

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.
It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.
The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.
They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, December 10, 1867. }

Gold opened for the week in New York at 137⅜, and has declined steadily, closing at 13[illegible]. There is a fair counter demand which absorbs all offered. Brokers bought upon a margin of about ½c on New York quotations, and sell at New York rates.

Exchange on all points East is held in abundance at our banks, and the demand is fair. Our merchants remit as fast as they take in currency. Buying rates are uniform at ⅛ off on New York, ⅜ on other points East, and ⅜ to 1c discount on New Orleans. Checking at par on all points.

City Scrip is in moderate demand by brokers at 35@36c. Selling at 37@38c.

County Warrants are dull. Buying at 65@67c. Selling at 70@75c, with some exceptional sales at 80c.

Police Scrip is scarce and firm at 82c buying. Selling at 85@90c.

Local finances are still tight, as may be witnessed daily upon our streets in the numerous firms who are closing out at "cost" or "half price," or within "thirty days." The cause of the present distress is excessive importations, not meaning, indeed, that the imports exceed what they ought to be in times of prosperity, but intending to say, that according to the desires and policy of the people, there has not been sufficient attention to the spirit of economy which is universal. The high prices of the war, and those which succeeded have made the people cautious about incurring expenditures which might by care be avoided. The spirit of extravagance, so reckless in what are called "good times," has been curbed, and instructed that it must be wary, and that it cannot be indulged in. Everybody anticipated that there must be a fall in prices, and as it cannot be known how far this will go, every one is willing to wait until the lowest depth is touched. With a full knowledge of this general disposition among the people, some dealers have either rashly, or without reflection contemned it, and have so gone on in their affairs, that they find that they have bought too largely, and that with debts pressing on them for the articles bought upon credit, they have not the means to pay, except by selling at a great sacrifice, or attempting to borrow at a time when all confidence is gone. Whoever has conducted business upon this plan must suffer. The attempt to hold on in hope of realizing prices that will not be paid, only contributes to the dullness of business, for when those who would sell ask more than those who would buy are willing to give, business must come to a stand. We find that the consequence of over stock, and "holding on," is that there is universal gloom, losses and prospects of bankruptcy are increasing with every day. Those, therefore, who are involved see a wretched future before them; they are holding out with no hope, unless there should be a turn in the tide. That turn, it is much to be feared, cannot come, until the financial policy of the country—now much agitated by the reckless propositions of ignorant politicians, who pretend to be statesmen—shall be settled, nor fully, until the anomalous condition of the Southern States is rectified by reconstruction. While the community is waiting no other policy can be successful but a close one, which will guide merchants in the determination to buy no more than can be sold within reasonable time, and at a profit, and to make no more than is ordered, or will be taken in the usual course of business, arising upon ordinary consumption and renewal.

The cotton market for the week has been singularly irregular. It opened with Uplands selling in Liverpool at 7⅝d. In New York, Middlings were 15¾@16c, and in this market there was a fair demand at 13½@13¾c. On Thursday the Liverpool market was active, and the New York market advanced to 16¼@16¾c, and in our market, under the favorable news received, went up to 14@14¼c. On Friday, the Liverpool dispatches announced that market active with Uplands 7¾d, Orleans, 7⅞d. On this day middlings reached 17c in New York, and 14½c in this market. On Saturday, in New York, Middlings went up to 17⅜@17½c which was the highest point reached. In this market sales were active at 14½@15c for Middlings, but the Eastern market drooped ½c toward the close, since when it has been giving way steadily. The Liverpool market to-day opened dull with Uplands at 7¾d, Orleans 8d, and the 2 p.m. dispatch read as follows: "Cotton quotations nominally unchanged—Uplands 7d, to arrive." This was a rapid falling off since the opening, and we hoped that the cable had erred, but the New York dispatch of a later date confirmed the decline. That market opened dull, with holders anxious to realize—Middlings, 16¾c; Orleans, 17@17¼c—entirely nominal. At noon there was a dull market and a further decline of ¼c, and at the close there was a heavy pressure to sell at 16¾c for Middlings; Orleans, 17¼c. Our market opened without any inquiry to note, but a few lots were sold on a basis of 14½c, but after advices were received there was no demand whatever, and much anxiety to sell. The market closed dull and declining.

Memphis Wholesale Boot and Shoe Market.

We have very little change to report in the Boot and Shoe trade. Sales, notwithstanding the advent of winter, continue to be small. Country dealers are only purchasing for immediate use—not that they hope for a decline in prices, but they are powerless to lay in good stocks from want of means. Our houses are, however, dealing on most favorable terms, with prompt customers, and our stocks are well kept up.

Memphis Wholesale Dry Goods Market

There is a further improvement to notice in this trade during the week, and prices are more favorable to buyers. The apprehensions felt concerning the closing of navigation and the continued cool weather have added no little to this result. The demand for woolen goods is especially noticeable, and stocks are not large. Osnaburs and bleached and brown sheetings are lower, with a fair demand. Heavy drills and canton flannels hold their own.

Wholesale Market.

We have nothing of a satisfactory character to say of the general trade of our city for the week just closed. Prices shrink so rapidly that sales are made in nearly all cases at a positive loss. Meats have been scarce and can't be duplicated at the prices at which stocks were closed out. Mess Pork is scarce and very firm with a tendency to higher prices, both here and above. There is some new Mess in market, which is held at about the same as old. Prime Mess is scarce and irregular. No Rump of consequence in market. Clear Sides are firm. Bulk Meats are also up ½c. Flour is firmer, though not quotably higher, with a fair demand for family brands. Feed is dull and stock sufficient for the demand. The Live Stock market is active and No 1 Western beeves are scarce, while Texas cattle are plentiful and dull. Dressed beef is offered on our streets in large quantities at 5@8c round. Dressed hogs are also in large supply, but meet ready sale.

FASSMAN'S IRON TIES
—FOR—
COTTON BALES.

THE undersigned have made extensive arrangements to supply the demand for these Ties the present season.

In addition to the FASSMAN DIAMOND TIE and BUTTON TIE, so extensively used heretofore, they now offer his ALLIGATOR TIE, with teeth so arranged as to instantly clamp the hoop when the pressure is removed from the bale, and hold it without slipping.

Great pains have been taken to secure the best quality of iron.

These Ties are so simple in their arrangement that they can be applied by any one, to bales of any size, with the same facility and expedition as rope. In strength, security and facility of application, they will compare favorably with any yet introduced.

The advantages of Iron Ties are now generally recognized; but it is deemed not out of place to call the attention of those interested to the very emphatic recommendation of Underwriters, Steamboat Captains, and Owners and Agents of Sea Steamers and Sailing Vessels, recently published in the newspapers in New Orleans.

WE would call the attention of the Public to the fact that, having entirely altered and improved our premises, we are desirous of selling out the present Stock of DRY GOODS at prices which we do not publish for a PUFF and BLOW, but would simply ask of a discriminating public to come and

Look at the Goods,

And then judge for yourselves. Adopting for our motto, "HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY," we shall adhere strictly to it in all the details of our business, and endeavor to give every satisfaction to those who favor us with their patronage.

We do not intend to "give up business" or "dissolve partnership," but shall sell goods at prices which are an advertisement of themselves feeling confident that an intelligent public will soon see the difference between WORDS and ACTIONS. Remember,

Everything is Reduced in Prices, and having one of the LARGEST Stocks in the city, we are certain of being able to SUIT YOU WITH WHAT YOU WANT.

We also have a very heavy stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, CLOTHING AND GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS, which we offer at

GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

The attention of WHOLESALE BUYERS is directed to the fact that our three-story Warehouse is full from roof to cellar, and we shall be most happy to show our goods to all parties contemplating purchasing.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

SONG OF STEAM.

[The following fine poem, by Geo. W. Cutter, of Covington, Kentucky, Blackwood has pronounced "the best lyric of the country:"]

Harness me down with your iron bands,
Be sure of your curb and rein,
For I scorn the strength of your puny hands,
As a tempest scorns a chain;
How I laughed as I lay concealed from sight
For many a countless hour,
At the childless boasts of human might,
And the pride of human power.

When I saw an army upon the land,
A navy upon the seas,
Creeping along, a snail-like band,
Or waiting a wayward breeze;
When I saw the peasant reel
With the toil he faintly bore,
As he turned at the tardy wheel,
Or toiled at the weary oar.

When I measured the panting courser's speed,
The flight of the carrier dove,
As they bore a law a king decreed,
Or the lines of the impatient love;
I could not think how the world would feel,
As those were outstripped afar
When I should be bound to the rushing keel,
Or chained to the flying car!

Ha! ha! ha! they found me at last;
And they invited me forth at length,
And I rushed to my throne with a thunder blast,
And laughed in my iron strength!
Oh! then ye saw a wondrous change
On the earth and ocean wide,
Where now my fiery armies range,
Nor wait for wind or tide.

Hurrah! hurrah! the waters o'er
The mountain steep decline;
Time—space have yielded to my power—
The giant streams of the queenly West,
And the Orient floods divine.

The Ocean pales where'er I sweep,
To hear my strength rejoice,
And monsters of the briny deep,
Cower trembling at my voice.
I carry the wealth and ore of earth,
The thought of the godlike mind;
The wind lags after my going forth,
The lightning is left behind.

In the darksome depths of the fathomless mine
My tiresome arm doth play,
Where the rocks ne'er saw the sun's decline,
Or the dawn of the glorious day;
I bring earth's glittering jewels up
From the hidden caves below,
And I make the fountain's granite cup
With a crystal gush o'erflow.

I blow the bellows, I forge the steel,
In all the shops of trade;
I hammer the ore and turn the wheel,
Where my arms of strength are made;
I manage the furnace, the mill, the mint—
I carry, I spin, I weave;
And all my doings I put in print
On every Saturday eve,

I've no muscles to weary, no breast to decay,
No bones to be "laid on the shelf,"
And soon I intend you may "go and play,"
While I manage the world myself.
But harness me down with your iron bands,
Be sure of your curb and rein,
For I scorn the strength of your puny hands,
As the tempest scorns a chain.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

NEW YORK, December 10.—A Richmond special says there will be probably five hundred delegates at the Conservative Convention on Wednesday. Ex-Congressman Thomas S. Flournoy is a delegate from Halifax county. He is a representative man, and says the Convention will be opposed to universal suffrage, but favor impartial suffrage in educational and property qualifications. The Convention will also favor Grant for the Presidency, on the New York platform, and will be liberal in every particular. An address will be issued to the people of the United States, setting forth these views.

A Radical caucus will be held on Thursday night to nominate a candidate for Governor and other State officers. Senator Wilson will be here to-morrow to look after affairs.

The Herald's Havana special says advices from Porto Rico to the 2d, have been received. A terrible earthquake shock occurred there on the 1st inst. At one place the inhabitants were at church hearing mass, and the scene which ensued was most pitiable. People were dashed together in consternation; the terrible cries of women and children were heartrending. The panic at Santiago about the cholera has subsided, and the reports from Havana no longer cause alarm.

The Herald's Lima correspondent says the revolution was spreading. Fresh risings north and south were reported every day, and in Lima distrust and discontent were increasing.

A Times' special says another veto may soon be expected from the President. The House to-day passed, for the second time, the bill to strike the word "white" from the laws of this district regulating the selection of jurors, leaving colored tax payers equally eligible with whites. This bill passed both branches of Congress in July last, but was subjected to a pocket veto by the President. Should Congress take its usual holiday recess, it will again share a like fate.
